The Spirit and the Church (1091-1092)

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church, Simplified

In the liturgy, the Spirit is both the teacher of the faith and the artisan of "God's masterpieces," the sacraments. He wants us to live in the risen Christ. In this way, the liturgy is the work of the Spirit and the Church.

In this sacramental dispensation, the Spirit prepares the Church to meet Christ, and unites the Church with Christ's life and mission.

The Spirit

Retaining Old Testament Images (1093-1095)

Because the Spirit fulfills the Old Covenant, the liturgy retains certain Old Covenant elements (such as readings from the Old Testament, the praying of the Psalms and the recalling of the saving events, especially the Exodus and the Passover).

The Church's catechesis reveals the mystery of Christ which is hidden in Old Testament images. The flood, Noah's ark, the cloud, and the crossing of the Red Sea symbolize Baptism. The water from the Rock prefigures the spiritual gifts of Christ, and the manna prefigures the Eucharist, "the true bread from heaven" (Jn 6:32).

The Church re-reads and relives salvation history in the "today" of her liturgy. Catechesis must lead to a spiritual understanding of this economy of salvation revealed in the liturgy.

Jewish Source but Christian Faith (1096)

Knowing the Jewish people's faith helps us to understand the Christian liturgy. The structure of the Liturgy of the Word originates in Jewish prayer. The Eucharistic Prayers draw inspiration from the Jewish tradition. However, the differences between the two are important. Christians and Jews both celebrate the Passover, but the Jews see it as history, while Christians see the Passover as being fulfilled by Jesus' death and Resurrection (while still expecting its divine fulfillment).

Preconditions for the Encounter (1097-1098)

Every New Covenant liturgical action is an encounter between Christ and his Church. The Spirit gathers people of every race and social background in a unified assembly, "a communion of the Spirit."

To prepare itself, the assembly must allow the Spirit to awaken faith, conversion, and adherence to the Father's will. These are the preconditions for producing fruits of a new life.

The Spirit and God's Word (1099-1102)

The Spirit (the Church's living memory) and the Church itself manifest Christ and his work in the liturgy.

The Spirit gives life to the proclaimed Word of God. Scripture is extremely important in the liturgy. It provides the readings, inspires the hymns and prayers, and gives meaning to the actions.

The Spirit gives a spiritual understanding of God's Word to the people and ministers, placing in them a relationship with Christ so they can live out what they celebrate.

The Spirit gives the grace of faith so that the saving Word of God elicits a response of faith and the assembly "a communion in faith."

Making a Remembrance (1103)

In the Liturgy of the Word, the Spirit "recalls" all that Christ had done. The celebration "makes a remembrance of all God's works." By this remembering ("anamnesis") the Spirit awakens the memory of the Church which then gives thanks.

Making the Mystery Present (1104-1105)

Besides recalling, the Christian liturgy also actualizes the saving events. Christ's Paschal mystery is celebrated (not repeated). In these celebrations the Holy Spirit makes the mystery present.

At the invocation (epiclesis) the priest asks the Father to send the Spirit upon the bread and wine so that they become the body and blood of Christ.

Spirit's Transforming Power (1106-1107)

This remembering (anamnesis) and this begging the Father to send the Spirit (epiclesis) is at the heart of the sacramental celebration. St. John Damascene explains how the bread and wine become the body and blood of Christ: "Let it be enough for you to understand that it is by the Holy Spirit, just as it was of the Holy Virgin and by the Holy Spirit that the Lord took flesh."

The Holy Spirit's transforming power hastens the coming of the kingdom, causing us to anticipate our full communion with the Trinity.

Fruits of the Liturgy (1108-1109)

In every liturgical action, the Holy Spirit (the sap of the Father's vine) brings about fruit. He abides indefectibly in the Church and makes the Church the great sacrament of divine communion. Communion with the Trinity and other believers are the fruit of the Spirit in the liturgy.

This "fellowship of the Holy Spirit" (2 Cor 13:13) transforms the faithful and helps them to participate in the Church's mission.

IN BRIEF

1110 In the liturgy of the Church, God the Father is blessed and adored as the source of all the blessings of creation and salvation with which he has blessed us in his Son, in order to give us the Spirit of filial adoption.

1111 Christ's work in the liturgy is sacramental: because his mystery of salvation is made present there by the power of his Holy Spirit; because his Body, which is the Church, is like a sacrament (sign and instrument) in which the Holy Spirit dispenses the mystery of salvation; and because through her liturgical actions the pilgrim Church already participates, as by a foretaste, in the heavenly liturgy.

1112 The mission of the Holy Spirit in the liturgy of the Church is to prepare the assembly to encounter Christ; to recall and manifest Christ to the faith of the assembly; to make the saving work of Christ present and active by his transforming power; and to make the gift of communion bear fruit in the Church.

Health Care Reform

The United States Senate and House of Representatives are in the process of reconciling the Health Care Reform bills that were passed by their respective bodies in 2009. This results in one bill that becomes the law of the land when the president signs it.

Senators Schumer and Gillibrand and the Congressional representatives of our diocese need to hear from you as soon as possible.

The United States Catholic Conference of Bishops advises that the Senate bill advances a pro-abortion agenda by expanding federal funding of abortion; neither bill has adequate conscience protection for health care providers, plans or employers; and it is unclear that affordability and access, especially for legal immigrants, will improve.

Please voice your concerns by sending a pre-written, instant e-mail to Senators Schumer and Gillibrand, and members of Congress who represent the Diocese. Please use the contact system available at www.usccb.org/action or call them at their local offices or through the Capitol switchboard at 1-202-224-3121.

Thank you for your activities of faithful citizenship.

Vocation View for the 3rd. Sunday of Ordinary Time

Today's reading from Paul's first letter to the people of Corinth, tells us that we (i.e. all the members of the Church) make up Christ's body. Therefore, like Christ, our lives should always point to God. When we live our lives with our focus on God, we stay the course on our path to holiness - our vocation. God chooses some people to do this in a very public way as ordained priests and deacons, or religious sisters and brothers. Have you ever thought God might be calling you in that way? Would you like to speak with someone about it? Contact the Office of Vocation Awareness at 585-461-2890, www.dor.org/Vocations, or vocations@dor.org.

Nominations for the Hands of Christ Award are now being accepted.

Parents, it is recommended that you NOT nominate your own children.

Criteria for Nomination are as follows: Young Person:

Is currently a high school senior

Has consistently demonstrated a Christian attitude by word and example

Has been actively involved in Both the parish as well as their school of community

Has been a positive role model to their peers

Is a practicing (regularly attends Sunday Mass) Roman Catholic in a parish in the Diocese of Rochester

Forms available at the OLV Office

Deadline is Friday, February 13th.

Services will be March 10, 13, and 23.

Benefit Pancake Breakfast

St. Ann School will be holding a Pancake Breakfast on Sunday, January 31st., to benefit our former school secretary and friend, Kathie Beckerman. The breakfast will go from 9:00am. to Noon. Adults $5.00, Children $3. This benefit will also include a Chinese Auction and a 50/50 Raffle. To help with this event, or to donate Chinese Auction items, please call the school office at 324-0733

Time for a Faith Lift? (for Women Only)

Ladies, do you need a faith lift? Then come join Rochester Magnificat on February 6th., as we peel off the mask...The program will be held at St. Pius Tenth Church, 3000 Chili Ave. and will begin with Mass at 8:30am., followed by a continental breakfast, and a faith lift teaching by Father Mike Mayer. The local winner of the Magnificat raffle (a trip to Rome) will be drawn and there will be an opportunity for personal prayer. The program will conclude at 11:00am. There is no charge for the morning, but a free-will offering will be accepted. Please RSVP to Kathy Murty @436-1284.
