Dear Parishioners

The Pharisee in Jesus' story was not a scoundrel. In fact, he was an honest, faithful, family man, and a meticulous observer of the Law. He did even more than the Law required of him. It required only one fast a year (on the Day of Atonement), but he fasted twice a week! It required tithes of certain commodities, but he paid tithes on everything. So, where did he go wrong? First of all in his attitude to God. He believed that he had run up a formidable credit-balance with God. Therefore, he had got God in his debt. Secondly, in his attitude to others. He despised others. He was a proud man without a trace of humility. And humility is the soil in which all other virtues flourish. In him we see arrogant self-reliance, complacency, and scorn of the sinner.

"There is no odor as bad as that which arises from tainted goodness" (Thoreau).

The Pharisee was full of himself. He didn't pray to God, but to himself. No less than six times in that short prayer he mentions "I". There is no room for God in one who is full of himself. "If a man, after prayer, is proud or self-satisfied, he has prayed not to God, but to himself" (Baal Shem Tov).

The prayer of the Tax-Collector is a model. He said simply, "Lord, be merciful to me I am a sinner." This is the most moving of all prayers, and one that God cannot fail to hear. In saying this, he was simply telling the truth. If we can say, "I am a sinner" with conviction and humility, we are very close to God. "I'm old enough to know that I am no better than others." (Carlo Carretto).

Memorial Mass (November 7th)

This year we shall again pray with all the families in our parish who lost their loved one during the period of November 2009 to November 2010. The Memorial Mass for the peaceful repose of these loved one will be on Sunday, November 7th, 2010 at the 10.30 Mass in St Ann Church.

I wish to thank the members of the Memorial Mass Committee who helped us prepare the list of all the deceased as well as send out letters of invitation to their loved ones to attend this community Service. The members of the Memorial Mass committee are, Joanne Daniels, Carol Kinney, Margie Terry, Beth Ann Jacobs and Bill Bishop. Thanks you very much for your time and devotion.

I am publishing the list of all the deceased who will be remembered at this Service. If we have missed out a name, kindly bring it to our attention as soon as possible.

May the Souls of the faithfully departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

Additional Masses

Beginning the first weekend of November (Nov. 6 & 7) we are adding two Masses for Sunday: 7:00am. & 5:30pm. So, from Nov. 6th. till Nov. 27/28, weekend Masses will be:

Saturday 4:30pm. at St. Ann

Sunday 7:00am. at St. Ann * 8:30am. at St. Mary
10:30am. at St. Ann * 5:30pm. at St. Ann

This will be on an experimental basis for the whole month of November, after which we will assess whether this is viable or not. Also, beginning Nov. 1st., the 12:15pm. daily mass will be added for the winter season. Daily Masses during winter therefore will be at 7:00am., 12:15pm. and 5:15pm., all in St. Ann Church, Hornell. Rev. Peter Anglaaere, Pastor

Crack Open Your Bible! Fr. George Heyman will give a presentation on Discovering the Riches in Scripture. Whether you've never read the Bible for yourself or read it daily, you'll get helpful tips and insight from his talk Wednesday, November 3rd., 7:00pm. at the Church of the Good Shepherd (in the church building out front), 3288 E. Henrietta Rd. Henrietta and repeated on Friday, November 5th., 8:45am. (after 8:00am. Mass), St. Joseph Church, 6105 Rush-Lima Rd., Rush. This talk will kick-off a Bible study series on First Corinthians using the Ignatius Guide, led by Fr. Bob Beligotti, Suzanne Stack, and Rich Halsted on Wednesday Evenings and repeated on Friday mornings.
