Vocation Awareness

We do not earn our salvation. Rather, God gives us our salvation and we need only embrace it. In the same way God gives us each a vocation, to marriage, single life, ordained, or religious life. Have you ever wondered if God may be calling you to the ordained or religious life? If you'd like to know more, please call the Office of Vocation Awareness, 585-461-2890, or visit our website: www.dor.org/vocations.

Raising the Standard:

In answer to a recent question/statement, "What does St. Ann School do for the parish?", the following is being shared with you.

St. Ann School (Catholic Schools of the Diocese of Rochester) will:

- Commit themselves to find additional ways to provide strong faith formation relevant for children and youth to empower them to become catalysts for change for the global church of the 21st. Century.
- Ignite a new relevance for partnership and collaboration among the Diocese, Schools, and Parish Communities.
- Continue to develop a commitment to the global Church of the 21st. Century through evangelization, service and prayer.

Even more important that the above commitments, Catholic School students receive one of the highest quality educations steeped in faith and values, in a loving environment.

This type of education is good for children, good for families, good for New York, and good for integration into all

Please Volunteer!

We are in need of three Eucharistic Ministers, one for Saturday masses and two for Sunday masses. Please consider being a part of this wonderful experience. Call Bev Gilbert at 324-5523 to sign up.

Preaching the Wisdom of the Cross"
