Vocation Awareness

Discipleship has its costs, as we hear today. The cost of a vocation can be perceived as loss of personal choice, etc. In reality, discovering our vocation opens us to the possibility of being Christ to others according to God's plan for us. It means living out the call that comes from God the Father. If you think that God may be calling you to the ordained or religious life and would like to explore that call in your life, please call the Office of Vocation Awareness, 585-461-2890, or visit our website: www.dor.org/vocations.

St. Ann School (Catholic Schools of the Diocese of Rochester) will:

- Commit themselves to find additional ways to provide strong faith formation relevant for children and youth to empower them to become catalysts for change for the global church of the 21st. Century.
- Ignite a new relevance for partnership and collaboration among the Diocese, Schools, and Parish Communities.
- Continue to develop a commitment to the global Church of the 21st. Century through evangelization, service and prayer.

Even more important that the above commitments, Catholic School students receive one of the highest quality educations steeped in faith and values, in a loving environment.

This type of education is good for children, good for families, good for New York, and good for integration into all
